The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 20. to Saturday September 24. 1743.

Petersbourg, August 30.

THIS Day being the Feast of St. Alexander Newsky, her Imperial Majesty and the Great Duke went on foot to hear Divine Service in the Monastery dedicated to that Saint, about four Werst from this City, and afterwards dined there with all the Knights and Monks of that Order.

Stockholm, Sept. 9, O. S. Yesterday Morning arrived here an Express from the Swedish Plenipotentiaries at Abo, with an Account, that the Czarina had ordered thirty Gallies, having on board ten thousand Men of Land Forces, and sixteen Men of War, to come to the Assistance of Sweden, in case of any Attack on the Part of Denmark. In a Plenum on Wednesday last it was resolved, that an End should be put to this Diet on Monday next the 12th Instant; and accordingly the same was published Yesterday by Sound of Trumpet, and with other usual Ceremonies.

Vienna, Sept. 21. The 16th Instant was the Day appointed for tendering the Oath of Fidelity to the Inhabitants of Bavaria, and the News of its having been executed, is expected every Moment. General Bernclau is reinforced by the Troops which formed the Blockade of Egra, and the Time approaches for the Execution of the Capitulation of Ingoldstat.

Copenhagen, Sept. 21. Last Tuesday, the 17th Instant, their Danish Majesties came again to Town, but returned the Thursday following to Fridericksbourg, where the Council was held Yesterday. The Horses which the Gentlemen of the Country are obliged to furnish (at certain Rates paid by the King) for the Service of the Army, are now almost every where delivered. A large Magazine of Forage is erecting in the Square of Amalienbourg, for the Use of a Camp which is going to be marked out under the Walls of this City; and the like Provisions are, as is said, making at Elsenore, for another Body of Troops to be assembled in that Neighbourhood. The Regiments commanded from the distant Provinces daily advance, and both the Field Pieces and heavy Cannon are on the Way from Holstein, and several Engineers and Officers of the Artillery are already arrived here.

Hambourg, Sept. 25. The Bishop of Lubeck arrived at Stralsund the 21st Instant, where he was received with the general Acclamations of the People, and received all the Honours which are shewn to crown'd Heads. We have not yet any Advice of his Royal Highness being embarked, the Convoy of the Swedish Men of War not having been able, by reason of contrary Winds, to come into that Road.

Worms, September 25, N. S. Letters from Prince Charles's Army of the 19th N. S. advise, that his Highness had not then passed the Rhine, but that he did not doubt being able to make his Passage: That notwithstanding the strong cannonading of the Enemy, his Bridge had receiv'd no Hurt, and that, for eight Days before the Date of those Letters, the Enemy had left off cannonading. Orders were Yesterday given by his Britannick Majesty for the March of the whole combined Army this Morning, and accordingly the British, Austrian, Hanoverian and Hessian Troops were all in Motion by Five of the Clock, and are now actually marching in two Columns towards Frankenthal, where they are to halt this Night, and will continue their March next Day to Spire. The Dutch Auxiliaries, who were encamped about a League from this Place, on the other Side of the Rhine, are now passing that River over our Bridge. By Accounts received Yesterday, we learn, that the French have quitted their Lines on the River Queiche, and are retired to those behind Landau, which extend from Lautrebough to Weissenbourg, and that they have the River Lautre in their Front.

Spire, Sept. 27, N. S. On the 25th Instant the Allied Army marched from Worms to Frankenthal, halting there that Night, and Yesterday in the Evening arrived within a League of this Place. His Majesty rested last Night at Muserstadt, a Village about two Leagues off, and arrived here this Morning on Horseback about Ten, attended by the principal Officers of his Court. The Horse Militia of this Place, with a Detachment of their Foot, went some Distance out of Town to receive his Majesty, attending him to his Quarters, where the Dean and principal Clergy, together with the whole Body of Magistracy, congratulated his Majesty on his Arrival. The Allied Army is encamped on the Right of this Town. The Dutch Auxiliaries encamped last Night about two Leagues on this Side of Worms, and are expected to join us this Evening. Yesterday Morning an Express came to his Majesty at Frankenthal from General Mentzel, of the Hussars, giving an Account, that in attempting the preceeding Night to burn a French Magazine, he forced two Posts of the Enemy, but by endeavouring to force a third, by a great Superiority of Troops, was obliged to abandon his Enterprize; his Horse falling with him in his Retreat, he had the Misfortune to break his Leg.

Liege, September 27, N. S. Prince William of

of Hesse left Aix la Chapelle a few Days ago, and is gone to Bonn. M. Fenelon, Count Sinrheim, Marshal Schmettau, and Count Welleren, are all gone from thence to the Hague, as is General Pretorius to Brussels.

Navy-Office, September 19, 1743.

These are to give Notice, that on Thursday the 6th of October next, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, will be exposed to Sale at this Office, in Pursuance of an Order on that Behalf, the Hull of his Majesty's Ship the Rupert's Prize at Sheerness, with her Masts, Yards, Rigging, Sails, Anchors, &c. as she now lies at his Majesty's Yard aforesaid; where she may be viewed, with the Particulars that are to be sold with her, till the Time of Sale; that such Persons as incline to buy her, may attend at that Time accordingly.

Lead-Office, September 22, 1743.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Court of the Corporation of the Governor and Company for smelting down Lead with Pit Coal and Sea Coal, will be held at their House in St. Martin's Lane, Cannon street, on Wednesday the 5th of October next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, it being one of the half yearly Courts.

General Post-Office, London, August 18, 1743.

POST-CHAISES between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge-Wells.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post-masters on the Road between London and Dover, and London and Tunbridge-Wells, are ready to furnish Gentlemen, or others, with Post-Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, upon as short Warning as for Post-Horses, at any Hour, either of the Day or Night. Gentlemen who have Occasion to go Post on the above Roads, are desired to apply to Mr. Baldwin, at the George Inn in the Borough of Southwark.

A Post-Chaise may be had at any of the Stages on the Dover and Tunbridge-Wells Roads, to go Part, or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for those who do not chuse to travel in the Night.

N. B. All Gentlemen that travel in Post-Chaises of their own upon the Roads where Post-Chaises are already set up, by the Authority of this Office, may be supplied with Horses, at the several Stages on those Roads, at the Rate of Nine Pence per Mile.

By Command of the Postmaster General.
